Proposing a Fishing Regulation / Getting It Adopted

Name of Presenter

Andy Couch

Email

fishing@fish4salmon.com

Seminar Description

Have an idea that may benefit Mat-Su fishing opportunities? Alaska has a process for individuals to propose a fishing regulation change and have it adopted into regulation. Proposing a regulation provides individuals an opportunity to participate more fully in the Alaska Board of Fisheries process, however Mat-Su residents and visitors may also participate in supporting proposals others have written. Learn more about writing proposals and the regulatory process from successful fishing regulation proposer, Andy Couch.
